LETTER OF SUPPORT

I Paolo Wulzer, the undersigned, acting in my capacity as Head of the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences of Università Napoli L'Orientale, hereby confirm our Department's formal support for the proposal entitled VOTEABROAD submitted under the CERV Programme (CERV-2026-CITIZENS-CIV).

Nature of the support

Should the proposal be successfully funded, the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences of Università di Napoli L'Orientale commits to supporting the project through the following non-financial contributions:

- Participating, through our academic representatives, in multistakeholder dialogues, deliberative seminars and expert exchanges organised within the framework of the project, contributing the University's expertise in political sciences, international law, and social sciences;
- Contributing, where relevant and feasible, to the dissemination of the project's results through our institutional and academic channels, and exploring opportunities to integrate these outputs into our teaching, civic education and student mobility support activities, given the University's significant engagement with internationally mobile student populations;
- Exploring, within our institutional mandate, concrete ways to integrate and build upon the tools, protocols and recommendations developed by the project beyond its funded duration, contributing to their long-term sustainability and uptake.

This Letter of Support expresses our genuine interest in the objectives of the proposed action and our recognition of its relevance to the project's core themes.

This letter does not imply any financial commitment.

For the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Università di Napoli L'Orientale
